SECTION A – DISCLOSURE ON MALAYSIAN CODE ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.1

The board should set the company's strategic aims, ensure that the necessary resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives and review management performance. The board should set the company's values and standards, and ensure that its obligations to its shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board discharges its roles, responsibilities and functions as set out in the Board Charter with the objective to ensure that an effective corporate governance structure operates in the Company so that the interests of shareholders are protected.
Explanation for departure	:
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.2

A Chairman of the board who is responsible for instilling good corporate governance practices, leadership and effectiveness of the board is appointed.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The chairman of the Board is YBhg. Datuk Soo Chung Yee J.P., who holds an executive position and designated as Executive Chairman. Assuming leadership entrusted to him by the Board, he chaired the board meetings to ensure the business of board meetings are conducted in a manner which is in line with the Company's objective of effective corporate governance.
Explanation for departure	:
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.3

The positions of Chairman and CEO are held by different individuals.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	Following the demise of the Non-Executive Chairman, Mr. Soo Thien Ming @ Soo Thien See, in 2023, his son YBhg. Datuk Soo Chung Yee J.P. has assumed the chair of the Board and was re-designated from Group Chief Executive Director to Executive Chairman in 2024. This dual role results in more unified and improved leadership, which is particularly helpful for the company that benefits from quick decision making in the highly competitive and fast challenging environment.
		The Board takes cognisance that the convergence of the roles is not in compliance with best practice. To reinforce corporate governance principles, the Board has implemented a structured succession plan by promoting Mr. Teo Giap Cheng from General Manager to Chief Operating Officer in 2025 with the aim of ensuring a balance of power and authority between the Executive Chairman and the Chief Operating Officer. The Executive Chairman is mainly responsible to ensure Board effectiveness and conduct focusing on strategy, governance and compliance, whereas the Chief Operating Officer is primarily responsible for the company's business and operations.
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:	Please explain the measure(s) the company has taken or intend to take to adopt the practice.

Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.6

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

If the selection of candidates was based on recommendations made by existing directors, management or major shareholders, the Nominating Committee should explain why these source(s) suffice and other sources were not used.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Board and the Nomination Committee comprise a majority independent directors and they are all professionals in their respective fields. As such, they are trusted to be able to select and recommend suitable qualified candidates from among their respective networks for appointment to the Board.
		Unless there are no qualified candidates from among the Board members' respective networks for appointment to the Board, the Company shall utilise independent sources.
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:	Please explain the measure(s) the company has taken or intend to take to adopt the practice.
Timeframe	:	Choose an item.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.7

The board should ensure shareholders have the information they require to make an informed decision on the appointment and reappointment of a director. This includes details of any interest, position or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect their capacity to bring an independent judgement to bear on issues before the board and to act in the best interests of the listed company as a whole. The board should also provide a statement as to whether it supports the appointment or reappointment of the candidate and the reasons why.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The details of the retiring Directors standing for re-election are set out in the Directors' Profile in the Company's Annual Report. A disclosure that an assessment on all retiring Directors had been conducted by the Nomination Committee is included in the Statement Accompanying Notice of Annual General Meeting.
